

Did you know...

...that Army Emergency Relief offers a scholarship to eligible military spouses? The Stateside Spouse Education Assistance Program (SSEAP) offers spouses of active duty and retired Soldiers and widows(ers) of Soldiers who died while on active duty or retired status the opportunity to apply for the scholarship.

Scholarship applications will be available online beginning in December 2009. We know you are thinking, but it's only August, and you are right. We want you to start thinking early about what your tuition needs might be for the 2010- 2011 school year.

The eligibility requirements for the SSEAP:

- Applicants must be residing in the United States
- Applicants must be registered in the Defense Eligibility Enrollment Reporting System (DEERS)
- Applicants must be a full-time, or planning to be full time, undergraduate student at a college/university, community college or vocational school
- Applicants must have a cumulative GPA of 2.0 or higher on a 4.0 grading scale

Required Documents:

- ✓ Online Application
- ✓ AGR Orders (if applicable) Title 10 U.S.C.
- ✓ Casualty Report (if applicable)
- ✓ Complete Official Transcript
- ✓ Student Aid Report (this is due no later than 01 May: EFC# must be included)

The application will be available at:

http://www.aerhq.org/education_spouseeducation_StateSide.asp

We will remind you about this opportunity again in early December!

If you have any questions regarding this scholarship program, please contact your local Army Emergency Relief Office at (570) 895-6682.

Soldiers Helping Soldiers